

The Scottish Parliament
Pàrlamaid na h-Alba

Your Scottish Parliament is coming to Leven

When: 11 June at 5.30pm – 7.30pm
Where: the Caledonian Hotel, 81 High Street,
Leven, Fife, KY8 4NG

The Economy, Jobs and Fair Work Committee ('the Committee') is made up of eleven MSPs from different parties. As part of an inquiry, it's currently examining the impact of bank branch closures in Scotland on local businesses, consumers and the Scottish economy, exploring what steps can be taken to address any issues identified.

Focus group event

A number of MSPs, who are members of the Committee, are coming to Leven on 11 June to hear your views and experiences of bank closures first-hand. In particular, the MSPs would like to hear what the impact of bank closures has been and what can be done to address any issues arising. A note will be taken of the discussion and will be sent to all members of the Committee and posted on the Parliament's website.

The Committee has also invited people to come along to speak to them at the Parliament in Holyrood. These views, along with those gathered through the focus groups, will feed into the Committee's final report. The report will make recommendations to the Scottish and UK Government on what should be done to address any issues identified through the inquiry. The Committee would expect responses from both Governments on its report.

How can I get involved?

If you're interested in taking part, please get in touch with Colleen Quinn by Monday, 4 June:

To ensure everyone has the opportunity to share their views on the day, numbers for the event are limited and places will be allocated on a first-come-first-serve basis (there will also be a waiting list).

If you're unable to come along, you can still provide your views to the Committee. Details about the inquiry can be found on its webpage or by contacting the clerks at:
